Carlin learns constituents' wishes before making decisions on issues

To the Editor:

Sydney Carlin has done an outstanding job serving the Manhattan community as city commissioner, mayor and now as our representative at the state level.

She has the experience that is needed and she truly cares about people. Sydney's caring about the community is evident to anyone who attends events in Manhattan; we can always count on seeing and visiting with Sydney. Her concern about doing the best job she can as our representative is admirable. Before making a decision about an issue, Sydney finds out what the people want and does the needed research. I recommend re-electing Sydney Carlin as representative from the 66th District.
