Carlin is a dedicated public servant who works hard for 66th District

To the Editor:

I have known Sydney Carlin since I moved to Manhattan in 1986. John and Sydney chose Manhattan as their home and the community in which they wanted their children to grow up. I have worked with her on community projects. I have worked with her at church events.

For 10 years or more she has committed herself to being a public servant and working for the people of Manhattan. It is hard work, and I am glad she is willing to do it. If you have paid attention to her voting record, it shows that she works for legislation that will have bipartisan support. She looks at the entire picture and votes for what is best for the Manhattan community. She has earned seniority in Topeka, and has served on many different committees.

She knows us because she walks door to door wanting to get to know you and hear your concerns. She has walked your neighborhood and talked with you or left her business card so you can call her whenever you need her. She works for you. Remember to vote Nov. 7, and let's re-elect Sydney Carlin.
