Pick the people, not the parties; Carlin and Hawk deserve re-election

To the Editor:

People usually vote for successful leaders and not political parties. You will find that this election is no different.

I am recommending two legislators, Sydney Carlin and Tom Hawk; both are longtime residents and both are graduates of K-State. They have provided successful leadership in Riley County over many years. Sydney has served two successful terms in the Legislature. She also provided outstanding leadership as a city commissioner and as mayor.

Tom Hawk was a successful teacher in the Manhattan schools for more than three decades. He retired as superintendent of schools in USD 383. Tom also has proved himself as a successful legislator.

I hope you will join me in sending Tom and Sydney back to the Legislature. They have served us well. Thank You.
