Don't gamble on an unknown; we know Carlin can do the job

To the Editor:

Sydney Carlin has earned our trust and confidence during her two terms as 66th District representative. She has served as city commissioner and mayor and has worked more than 30 years with projects and committees to better our community. She is approachable, genuine and has been involved in our lives on a day-to-day basis.

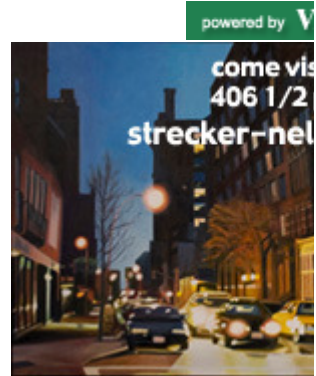

By contrast, her opponent moved to Manhattan only recently. He has told us he has never held public office. Therefore, we can assume that he has never been in a position to make legislative decisions on behalf of taxpayers. We do not know how he will represent our concerns about public issues that face our community, and we have no way to find out. Why would we vote for someone we know so little about?

Let's not take a chance on the unknown. I urge residents to vote for a known community member — Sydney Carlin — in the 66th District.
