Carlin is a strong representative for people on limited incomes

To the Editor:

Sydney Carlin has been strong in her support of education and the needs of our elder citizens and will continue to keep in touch and work hard in support of these groups. This is very important for our district.

Some of the legislation in 2007 will deal with issues related to older Kansans, particularly those who continue to need to work during their retirement. Some of these issues are further increases in the homestead property tax exemption for low-income retirees and/or a cap on the property tax on senior citizens, increasing the food sales tax rebate by indexing it for inflation, and helping grandparents who are raising their grandchildren. These are issues that Carlin has supported in past sessions and that will continue to be at the top of the agenda for Manhattan citizens and Sydney Carlin in the next session of the Legislature.

In a recent public statement from the Kansas Silver Hair Legislators, Sydney Carlin was recognized as one of several members of the 2006 Legislature "who was dedicated to the needs of the people of Kansas. Through her efforts, the needs presented by the Silver Haired Citizens of Kansas were recognized and appropriate actions were taken."

Please vote for Sydney Carlin on Nov. 7.
