Carlin a trusted public servant who listens to citizens' concerns

To the Editor:

We have watched Sydney Carlin's work in Manhattan for many years. Sydney's work as a city commissioner and mayor allowed Manhattan residents to see her willingness to hear all sides of issues and how she votes.

Her hard work as a community volunteer and elected public leader for Manhattan has served us well. When walking with Sydney in her district we see that people trust her good judgement. She listens well to citizens' many different concerns such as operating a small business, funding for education and adequate health care for all citizens.

We will vote for Sydney Carlin for the 66th District seat in the Kansas House of Representatives because of her long tenure and knowledge of the needs and issues facing our community. We ask you to join us in voting for her on Nov. 7.
