

Carlin announces reelection bid

Staff Reports

State Rep. Sydney Carlin has announced she will run for a third term in the 66th District. Carlin, a Democrat, officially filed for the race today in Topeka. The 66th District basically covers the eastern half of Manhattan.

In early April, Robert Strawn, an Army veteran, announced his intent to run for the Republican nomination to the 66th District race. The filing deadline is noon Monday, June 12.